

Danakil Depression Tour

We do Tours that are Fun, Informative and Entertaining!

The Danakil Depression is not only the hottest place on earth in terms of year-round average temperature but also one of the lowest, lying at -120 meters below sea level. It receives little to no rainfall for most of the year. Apart from these unique features, the Danakil offers a range of attractions such as the ErtaAle volcano with its lava lake, the colorful Dallol mountains, volcanic activity, salt canyons, the Lake Asale salt flats, and traditional salt mining by locals. For bird enthusiasts, the Danakil Depression is a paradise boasting species like the Abyssinian ground hornbill, Secretary bird, Pharaoh's chicken, Abyssinian Roller, Ostriches, and Kori bustards.

What to pack for the Danakil: Torch lights and headlamps, Trekking shoes and sandals, Trekking pants and shorts, along with Sleeping bag.

Danakil Depression 3 Days Tour

We Do Tours that are Fun, Informative and Entertaining!

Day 1
Addis - Afdera

At 8:00 AM, our guide and driver will pick you up from Semera Airport and drive you to the Erta Ale Base Camp. Along the way, we will take a lunch break in the town of Afdera, known for its proximity to the Salt Lake where you can swim and float. Afterward, we will continue with a relaxed and leisurely drive to the ErtaAle base camp. Overnight camping will be near the ErtaAle volcano.

Day 2
Ertale - Dallol

Starting at 8:30 AM, you will depart from the base camp in ErtaAle. By 4:00 PM, you will arrive in Hamedela. From there, you will proceed to Lake Asale salt flats to enjoy a breathtaking sunset and observe splendid camel caravans transporting salt from lake Asale. Overnight camping will be in Hamedela.

Day 3
Dallol - Mekele

On this day, you will visit the colorful Dallol mountain, observe camel caravans, explore the Lake Asale salt flats, witness traditional salt excavating methods, see sulfuric acid ponds, and have the opportunity to swim in the Salt Lake. Finally, we will drive back to Mekele, arriving at 4:30 PM. Alternatively, we can drive to Semera. This concludes the tour.
